On 07/02/2021 at 01:25 hours, Officer Perocchi, Tyler (79535) responded to an unknown trouble at 3609 Cherryton Dr. Police were dispatched to this residence because a woman called crying and asked for police. While on the phone, the call-taker overheard her arguing with a male that was very upset and overheard a physical altercation possibly occurred. When police responded, they saw an individual shut the blinds to the residence. Police knocked on the door multiple times but could not get anyone to come to the door. Police walked around the residence to look for anything that would indicate a struggle or distress and did not find anything. Police monitored the property for about 10 minutes and did not hear or see any signs of distress, or any movement after the blinds were closed. While monitoring the property, police could see through a side window into the living room and part of the bedroom and did not see anyone in that part of the home at all. After monitoring the property and finding no exigent circumstances for police to take any other action police left the residence without incident.
