Ms. Cochran stated that she and Mr. Allen were in the process of breaking up for the last several weeks, and he had been calling her tonight. Ms Cochran showed me several calls from Mr. Allen, and she stated that he was upset about a TV. I was able to speak with Mr. Allen on the phone with Ms. Cochran, he stated that he could prove he owned the tv. Ms Cochran stated that it was true, but she could prove she owned his stereo. They both agreed to meet on Monday to exchange the TV and Stereo and that should resolve their issue. No further.

21-072447 7/11/2021 1:00:00AM 240 MVT/Passenger Vehicle 457 Roanoke Ave

On 07/11/2021 at 05:10 hours, Officer Adam Krystaponis (75508) responded to a MVT/Passenger Vehicle at 457 Roanoke Ave. Upon arrival, I spoke with Ms. Porshe Pierce, who stated that her 2008 Cadillac SUV had been stolen from her driveway. Ms. Pierce stated that she had last seen it at approximately 0100, when she had locked the doors and rolled up the windows in her driveway. Ms. Pierce stated that she had the main key to the vehicle, and showed it to me, but also stated that she kept the spare keys inside the vehicle. Ms. Pierce stated that the vehicle belonged to her boyfriend, Mr. Dayle Crayton, but he was in jail since November, and she had his permission to use it. Ms. Pierce stated that there was no lien on the vehicle, it was paid off, and I was not able to find any relevant tow/repo records through Dispatch. Ms. Pierce stated the vehicle contained clothes, a carseat, $5, and her Wifi box along with assorted papers. Ms. Pierce stated the vehicle was grey/blue/silver, had the passenger headlight out, and a dent in the driver's rear, with a black and white dealer tag on the rear. She was unable to provide a VIN or tag number, so it was not entered into NCIC, but the VIN was discovered upon the recovery shortly after.

21-074063 7/15/2021 10:55:00AM 91Z Miscellaneous Information 3017 15th Ave

On 07/15/2021 at 11:00 hours, Officer Amphor (73492) reported a memo at 3017 15th Ave. Police responded to the incident location by Investigator Schultz of the Chattanooga-Hamilton County Air Pollution Control who observed smoke and located at 3017 15th Ave. When Inv. Schultz attempted to continue the investigation of the fire, the resident Mr. Jarret Troupe became verbal aggressive and defensive. Inv. Schultz requested police and fire to respond due to the visible sign of a fire and Mr. Troupe's aggressive behavior. Mr. Troupe continued to be verbal confrontational towards police and fire when they arrived on scene. Police and Fire located the fire in the backyard of the residence. Mr. Troupe had been burning a playground set. As fire attempted to put out the fire, Mr. troupe was verbally aggressive towards all parties and began to film all present. Mr. Troupe went into the house and returned with a large kitchen knife with a blue handle. Mr. Troupe used the knife to cut the hose attached to the residence fire was attempting to put out the fire with. Mr. Troupe then began to fill a bucket from the house to put out the fire. Fire continued to extinguish the fire according to their experience and training. Mr. Troupe asked police to move their vehicles so he could leave for first responders vehicles blocked his vehicle in. Police moved vehicles to allow for Mr. Troupe to leave. Mr. Troupe felt police had not move their vehicles enough to allow for him to leave the location and asked again. As fire finished extinguishing the fire and packing up equipment, Mr. Troupe sat on his porch and continued to be verbally aggressive towards police. Mr. Troupe felt the presence of police was a form of harassment against him. All first responders and Inv. Schultz left once fire was ready to leave. No police action was taken.
