290 Vandalism

2108 Chestnut St

On 09/26/2021 at 11:00 hours, Officer Stansberry and PO Morgan responded to a Vandalism at 2108 Chestnut St. Upon arrival police spoke with victim Damarcus Bynum. Bynum said between 9/25/21 at approximately 2300 hours and 9/26/21 at approximately 0930 hours the 2 passenger side tires of his listed vehicle were punctured on the sidewall. Bynum said the vehicle was parked in the parking lot of Chestnut Flats Apartments (2108 Chestnut St) during that time frame. Bynum said he has been having ongoing problems with his ex-girlfriend, suspect Tiffany Hall, who damaged 2 tires on his vehicle in February 2021. Bynum showed police text messages that he said were from Hall during the time frame which the vandalism occurred. The text message showed that the sender was extremely upset at Bynum. One of the messages said "Just can't stay out them projects can ya? You might as spend your whole Sunday out here . But anyway we even". Police responded to Chestnut Flats and observed cameras at the entrance/exit but were unable to review the camera footage due to the office being closed. Bynum said he wishes to prosecute and requested police take out warrants on Hall. Warrants were attempted but denied by magistrate pending additional information.

21-105888 10/2/2021 7:37:00PM 91Z Miscellaneous Information 2038 S Willow St

On 10/02/2021 at 19:45 hours, Officer A. Morales (82269) and PO R Johnson (87257) reported a memo at 2038 S Willow St. Police were dispatched to the above address for a wreck turning to a disorder in the parking lot. Upon arrival, Police spoke with Mr. Mendez driver of a red Nissan Xterra ([REDACTED]) who stated that the driver of the Gold Chevrolet Cruze (no tag), Ms. Sekera Twitty, claimed that he hit her car and wanted money for it. Mr. Mendez said he gave the woman $500 in order to appease her and thought that everything was okay. It was at this time that Ms. Sekera upped the amount telling him she wanted more money instead of $500 she wanted $2500 more from him. After speaking with Mr. Mendez Police spoke with Ms. Twitty who claimed that While Mr. Mendez was backing up he hit her bumper and pulled it off. Ms. Twitty claimed that she asked him for money in order to fix the bumper and not call the Police. Ms. said Mr. Mendez had $300 on him that she saw and when she asked for more money Mr. Mendez said he needed to go to an ATM that he didn't have that kind of cash on him. Ms. then said that Mr. Mendez gave her $500 instead of the $300 he originally had out. Ms. Twitty said that was not enough money to fix her bumper that's why she called the police. Police then spoke with a party that wished to remain anonymous due to fear of the Police stated that Mr. Mendez and Ms. Twitty pulled up at the same time and that the Gold Cruz was parked already and the bumper was already hanging off and that when Mr Mendez started to back up Ms. Twitty stopped him saying that Mr. Mendez hit her car. Police then spoke with another witness Ms. Amber ([REDACTED]). Ms. Twitty stated that she witnessed the passenger in the gold Cruz Mr. Tate got out and started trying to pull Mr. Mendez out of his car. That Mr. Mendez was scared and that's why he gave them that $500. Ms. Twitty also stated that Mr. Mendez did not hit Ms. Twitty's car. Police informed Ms. Twitty that she had two options that she could either give Mr. Mendez his money back and file a report or keep the money and fix it herself. Ms. Twitty asked the Police if they could have Mr. Mendez give her $200 more dollars and Police stated absolutely not these were her options and she needed to make a choice. Ms. Twitty decided to keep the $500 due to her not having insurance and Mr. Mendez not having insurance. At this time there is nothing further to investigate.
